JOURNAL

OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Tuesday - 15 August 1961

50X1

50X1 1. [redacted] Mrs. Nadeole, on the staff of the House Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, called to say the Committee is holding hearings on the Antarctica bills starting 24 August. She noted that the Agency had sent in a no comment report but wished to extend an invitation for us to testify if we desired. I advised her that as indicated in our letter, while we were interested in Antarctica, it was not a matter within the Agency's jurisdiction and, therefore, we would not wish to testify. However, I thanked her for extending the invitation.

50X1 2. [redacted] Mr. MacAlister, in the office of Senator Claiborne Pell, called and said the Senator understood the Agency had some unclassified material on the subject of Soviet and Communist Bloc Medical Aid to the Newly Emerging Countries. Senator Pell is most interested in receiving such information if we might have on this. OER and OCI are preparing appropriate material.
